

Whitaker Hypnotherapy Privacy Policy

Statement of Intent

This policy sets out how we at Whitaker Hypnotherapy use and protect the information that you provide when you use our services and our website

It is our intention to ensure that any data you provide is managed respectfully, kept secure and only used for the purposes for which it has been provided.

This policy will be updated from time to time in line with prevailing legislation.

When you contact us via our website, phone or email we will collect your:

Email Address:

Telephone Number:

What we do with this information

We use this information in order to make contact with you to discuss your treatment and to book a course of therapy sessions if you wish to go ahead.

In Initial Consultation we will ask for

Your name, address, telephone, and email contact details so that, if necessary, we may contact you during the time we are working together. We also ask questions about your age, occupation, education, health, medication, and pastimes. These questions help us to get to know you better and tailor the therapy for your needs.

Under the General Data Protection Regulations which are effective from 25th May 2018 you have the following rights:

The GDPR includes the following rights for individuals:

- the right to be informed (which is why we have produced this policy).
- the right of access (if you wish to see your file then please make a request in writing to Susan Rodrigues, the Data Processor. We will provide you with the information within 30 days of your request).
- the right to rectification (this is your right to request changes to any information we hold that is factually inaccurate. If you believe any of the information we hold about you is incorrect then please let us know as soon as possible and we will make the appropriate changes)
- the right to erasure (given the nature of our work we are required to hold our details for a period of 8 years, after this your information will be securely destroyed.)
- the right to restrict processing (we will only use the information for the purposes that we have stated: most standards of confidentiality applied in professional contexts are based upon the Common Law concept of confidentiality where the duty to keep confidence is measured against the concept of "greater good".
- the right to data portability: we will not share your information, other than in the situations described above, without your specific consent.
- the right to object (we will not contact you for marketing purposes unless you have given us specific agreement to do so)
- the right not to be subject to automated decision-making including profiling (we will not use your information for profiling purposes).

Sharing Data

We use a data processor for the purposes of administration (including appointment making) and accounts. The data processor is trained for GDPR purposes and fully compliant with the requirements.

The clinic premises may operate CCTV surveillance for the purposes of security. We have received written assurance from the owners of the premises that any data obtained via CCTV is protected in accordance with the GDPR.

Webcam Sessions

Where sessions are conducted by Webcam, eg. Skype, Facetime, the sessions are recorded only for as long as it takes to write up the notes not taken contemporaneously. Once notes have been documented, the recording is deleted.
